1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Vendor Code of Conduct (VCC) establishes a set of obligations on business and ethical practices, and professional conduct expected of all Vendors engaging or working with the Tong Herr Resources Berhad (“THR” or “the Company”), including its subsidiaries (“the Group”).
- 1.2 The VCC shall apply to all contractors, consultants or any person including their employees, agents, suppliers and sub-contractors (representatives). The Group expects the Vendor to comply with the VCC when engaging with the Group and throughout its conduct of business with the Group.
- 1.3 All Vendors are required to sign the “Declaration of Interest” (Appendix 1) which is the Vendor’s declaration to the Group on any potential or actual conflict of interest at the beginning of the procurement exercise. Appointed Vendors subsequently are required to sign the “Declaration of Integrity” (Appendix 2) which is the Vendor’s declaration of its compliance to the VCC, the relevant laws and regulations.
- 1.4 Any enquiries relating to this VCC can be forwarded to the Head of Finance by emailing to acct@tong.com.my.

2. Objective

Integrity and Good Ethics

Vendor must be honest in any representation and be committed to the highest standard of ethical conduct and integrity.

Accountability

Vendor must be accountable for services rendered and goods provided and honour their commitment efficiently and timely in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed.

Protection of assets and information

Vendor must not disclose Group 's confidential information or data to any unauthorised party.

Workplace Practices and Culture

Vendor must comply with all applicable laws, regulations relating to work practices and environment.

3. Compliance to VCC

- 3.1 It is the responsibility of the Vendor to ensure that its representatives understand and comply with this VCC. In the event that the Vendor believes that a breach may have occurred or is likely to occur, the Vendor must report of such situation to the Group in accordance with paragraph 8.
- 3.2 The Group may require the Vendor to provide further information or attestation in writing of its compliance to VCC from time to time. In this regard, the Vendor must provide the Group with such information as requested.
- 3.3 The Group has the right to take any action that the Group deems fit against the Vendor for breaching the VCC, such as:
- (a) Suspension or termination of contract;
 - (b) Deduction of any amount of money paid or promised to be paid;
 - (c) Requiring the Vendor to substitute any representative who breaches the VCC or acting inconsistent with the VCC; or
 - (d) Disqualify the Vendor from participating in any tender or procurement exercise.
- 3.4 The Vendor must co-operate with the Group in any investigation the Group may conduct in relation to any allegation of inappropriate or unethical behaviour involving the employees or the Vendor's representative pursuant to any business interaction or procurement exercise.

4. Conduct Business with Integrity and Good Ethics

The Vendor must uphold the highest standard of integrity and ethical conduct in all business interactions and dealings with the Group and these include:

(a) Compliance with laws and internal policies

Law

Vendor and its representatives must conduct their business activities in full compliance with the applicable laws and regulations while conducting business with the Group.

Approvals

Vendor and its representatives must obtain all necessary licences and permits to conduct the activities for which they have been contracted by the Group.

Internal Policies

Vendor and its representatives must comply with the relevant internal policies and procedures established by the Group.

(b) Conflict of interest

- (i) Vendor must avoid any act or omission which may give rise to a conflict of interest in the discharge of the Vendor's work in relation to the agreement entered into with the Group.
- (ii) Vendor must not gain any improper advantage or preferential treatment in their relationship or dealing with the Group's employees.
- (iii) Vendor must declare to the Group by submitting the Declaration of Interest form in Appendix 1 if it has any family relationship with the Group's employees.
- (iv) Should there be any situation of an actual or potential conflict of interest and/or improper advantage, Vendor must report of such situation to the Group in accordance with paragraph 8.

(c) Anti-bribery/corruption

Vendor is prohibited from–

- (i) directly or indirectly soliciting or accepting any form of bribery;
- (ii) being directly or indirectly involved in activities such as extortion or facilitating, requesting for or receiving kick-backs; or
